International Student Financial Statement

Please complete the following form carefully and fully in order to avoid delays in your admission.

In compliance with the U.S. Immigration regulations, Crowder College cannot provide you with the Form 1-20 needed to apply for a student VISA until you have demonstrated that you can be financially responsible for all educational and living expenses while you are in the United States. If is for this reason that we must ask you to provide us with written verification of the sources and amount of your financial support. Your financial verification must be accompanied by a bank statement, a sponsor's letter of guarantee, or a letter confirming a scholarship or loan. An acceptable financial document must have been issued no longer than six (6) months before you intent to enroll. Copies of these documents should be kept to present to the U.S. Consulate at the VISA interview and to the U.S. Immigration Officers at your port of entry. Please return the completed form and the required documents to the International Programs Office, Crowder College, 601 Laclede Avenue, Neosho, Missouri 64850 USA or by email as an attachment to internationl@crowder.edu.

You should not consider student employment as means of support for yourself and/or your family. Off-campus work is prohibited by U.S. Immigration regulations during the first year of study. It is difficult to obtain a work permit in the succeeding years as well and is granted only due to unexpected financial hardship (See Federal Regulation: 8 CFR 214.2(f)(9)(ii), www.uscis.gov). The spouse and/or children of a student on an F-1 VISA are not permitted to work under any circumstance.
