Neosho, MO – The Crowder College International Club and the Crowder College Latino Union will host an International Festival on Thursday, May 5, 2011 from 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. in the Wright Conference Center located inside the Arnold Farber Building on the Neosho campus. The CCLU is participating in conjunction with it being Cinco de Mayo.

There will be food from 15 different countries along with entertainment, dancers, instrumentalists and presentations from 12 countries. In additions to the festivities we will also have a world bazaar area with unique items on display from various countries.

International students will be clothed in attire representing festivals or ceremonies in their country. They will also be available to answer questions and share facts about their country.

Some of the countries included in the festival will be Guatemala, Kenya, Brazil, Mexico, Iraq, Japan and more.

The event is open to the public with a request of $1 admission charge or free to students with an ID.

For more information contact our International Office in Admissions at 417-455-5550.
