RE: Crowder College Technical Education Center Awards Presented

Neosho, MO – The instructors and staff in the Crowder College Technical Education Center (CCTEC) presented awards to students from area high schools. Students who participated in the CCTEC programs were honored for their efforts by their instructors.

Students eligible to attend CCTEC are enrolled at four area sending schools which are: Neosho, McDonald County, East Newton and Seneca. There are twelve programs that high school students have the ability to take while attending high school.
