FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Crowder College Honored in The Chronicle of Higher Education 2011 Great Colleges to Work For

Crowder College employees knew there were special things about working at the college, but being named one of The Chronicle of Higher Education 2011 Great Colleges to Work For was a distinctly appreciated honor. The Chronicle's Great Colleges to Work For identifies and examines colleges through a detailed survey of faculty, staff and administrators.

"It is very gratifying to be recognized by The Chronicle of Higher Education because it is generally considered to be higher education's global voice. And, it is terribly humbling to realize that this recognition came about as a result of a college wide survey of faculty and staff. The survey results ranked Crowder College very high in areas such as Collaborative Governance, Teaching Environment, Confidence in Senior Leadership, and Supervisor/Department Chair Relationships. I think this speaks volumes about the wonderful people who work here, our dedication to Servant Leadership, and the steady guidance of a very insightful Board of Trustees" remarked Dr. Alan Marble, President of Crowder College.

Nearly 44,000 employees from 310 two and four year institutions participated in the survey/assessment process. Crowder was one of only 26 community colleges nationwide to be recognized.

This honor along with the recognition earlier this spring as a Top 120 Community College by the Aspen Institute underscores the dedication to service and passion for learning that defines Crowder College.
