FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RE: Crowder Campus Director Recognized for Efforts

Neosho, MO - Cyndi Adamson, Webb City Campus Director, was named as one of the 15 Most Influential Women by the Joplin Tri-State Business Journal.

Adamson has worked at Crowder for 12 years and held the campus director responsibilities since 2004. Prior to taking the director position she served as the Students Services Coordinator.

Adamson's true motivation is to help others as she believes in working together with co-workers and community members to improve and serve the area. Under her leadership the Crowder College Webb City campus has made significant increases in enrollment with over the past few years.

Crowder College is proud to have such a valued staff member recognized for her efforts in education and in the community.
