OFFICE OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEOSHO, MO – The Crowder College Educational Opportunity Center (EOC) will be offering Financial Aid workshops and Pre-College Orientation events prior to the start of the spring semester.

The FAFSA (Free Application Federal Student Aid) workshops will take place January 5th and 13th at the Crowder College facility in Webb City, and January 6th and 11th at the Crowder College facility in Cassville. Both sessions are come and go from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Students applying for college who have not completed their FAFSA should attend one of these sessions.

The Pre-College Orientation will be held Tuesday, January 10th at 10:00 a.m., 2:00, or 6:00 p.m. in the Newton Hall Conference Room on the Neosho campus. Choose a convenient time and make a reservation by calling the EOC Office. EOC's Pre-College Orientation is for new full or part-time students who have either been out of school for more than 5 years or have recently earned a GED and are not enrolled in the college's orientation class. You will review the academic calendar, learn to read your class schedule, get a tour of campus, receive assistance with e-mail and computer use to access "My Crowder" and more.

For more information or to schedule a time please call 417-455-5475 or toll free 866-822-1362.
