INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ATTENDING CROWDER

Neosho, MO – Crowder College has 69 international students representing 29 different countries enrolled in classes this semester. Overall, the state of Missouri ranks 13th in the number of international students attending colleges or universities in the United States. The number of international students grew 13% in Missouri compared to the national rate increase of 5%.

Students at Crowder represent Brazil, South Africa, New Zealand, Canada, and more. The International club hosts an annual festival in the spring semester to introduce their native culture to other students. They prepare food and display items that would be found in their countries.

Crowder College offers opportunities for students to study abroad during Spring Break with a trip to Paris, France.
