

October 13, 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Office of Public Information
Crowder College

Neosho, MO – Crowder College was honored by receiving 1st place in the Joplin Tri-State Business Journal’s “Best Places to Work” for companies with 300+ employees. Rounding out the top 3 were McCune Brooks Regional Hospital (2nd) and Downstream Casino (3rd).

Crowder College has consistently been named among the Joplin Tri-State Business “Best Places to Work”. This is the first time Crowder has earned top honors.

Crowder College has enjoyed phenomenal growth over the last 10 years. Employees continue to dedicate their efforts toward creating a campus culture known as the “Crowder Family”. Student success is a priority and it shows through various campus activities emphasizing servant leadership.

Crowder College has locations in Neosho, Webb City, Cassville, and Nevada. Plans are in place to start construction on a location in McDonald County in the near future. Class offerings expanded this fall into Greenfield, Monett and Lamar. Crowder is providing additional locations this spring in Mount Vernon and El Dorado Springs.

As a community college, Crowder offers Associate of Arts, Associate of Applied Science, Associate of Science degrees and Certificates. Whether a student plans to transfer to a four-year institution or enter the workforce Crowder College provides those opportunities.

###

Accepting the award for Crowder College are:

Amy Rand, Associate VP of Academic Affairs
Dr. Alan Marble, President

