Crowder College Phi Theta Kappa Students at Work

Crowder College Phi Theta Kappa students were hard at work this afternoon as part of MoDOT's NoMOTrash month. Crowder's PTK organization has a two mile section of D Highway that is part of the MoDOT Adopt a Highway program.

April is NoMOTrash month for MoDOT so students scheduled the Adopt-A-Hwy trash pickup for this afternoon.

Phi Theta Kappa's mission is two-fold: 1) recognize and encourage the academic achievement of two-year college students and (2) provide opportunities for individual growth and development through participation in honors, leadership, service and fellowship programming.

This event is just one of many activities the Crowder College PTK students participate in throughout the year. They hold various bake sales and food drives for area charitable organizations as well as community projects.

Sponsors of the Crowder College PTK chapter are Suzanne Puckett and Peter Broglio.

Attached please find a picture of the Crowder PTK students who participated. If you have additional questions please feel free to contact Suzanne Puckett at 417-455-5570 or Peter Broglio at 417-455-5428.
