

February 21, 2012

Office of Public Information

Crowder College TRIO Summit

Neosho, MO - The 2012 Crowder College TRIO Summit is being held on Saturday, February 25 on the Crowder College Neosho campus. The five Crowder College TRIO Programs (Educational Opportunity Center, Talent Search, Student Support Services, Upward Bound, and Upward Bound Math/Science) are educational opportunity outreach programs designed to motivate and support students as they progress through the academic pipeline from middle school to college completion. Nearly 600 students and parents are registered for the event which begins with registration at 8:30am in the Farber Building. The Summit includes a resource fair, luncheon, breakout sessions for students and parents, an interactive budgeting game, and a keynote message from Dr. Joe Seabrooks, President of the Metropolitan Community College Penn Valley campus. The event concludes at 4:00 pm.

###

For more information please contact Tiffany Slinkard at 417-455-5608 or the day of the event on her cell phone, 417-592-1140. Media is welcome to attend the event which will be held in Wright Conference Center inside the Arnold Farber Building, Bob Sneller Gymnasium and Elsie Plaster Community Center. The attendees are from Crowder's 9 county service region area school districts.