Rough Rider Soccer Camp

Attendance for: High School Players

Mission: The express purpose for this camp is to expose high school players to what will be expected by college coaches should they want to continue playing soccer after high school. The Rough Rider staff supports the communities of Southwest Missouri in their efforts to educate youth on the importance of wellness and exercise. The goal of the camp is to provide the basic fundamentals and skills needed to reach their maximum potential as soccer players. At all times it should be remembered that soccer is a game and as such should be fun.
