Private Interview-All contestants will have a private interview in front of a panel of judges on the afternoon of the pageant. The judges' chairperson will take each contestant into the interview room and introduce her to the judges. The contestant will be asked questions from her fact sheet. Length of the interview is based on contestant age; 2 minutes for Tiny and Petite Miss, 3 minutes for Little Miss, 4 minutes for Pre-Teen Miss, 5 minutes for Young Miss, and 6 minutes for Junior Miss. The judges will make a close-up appraisal of appearance, manners and grooming, attitude, personality, self-confidence, and vocal expression. The secret is to relax and have a good time. Appropriate attire for an interview includes something you may wear to church, important event, or job interview.

Evening Wear- Boy contestants may wear a variety of formal wear or dress clothes. Girl contestants may wear a long or short dress. Expensive dresses are not necessary. Dress according to what is appropriate for your age. The dress should not overpower the girl.

Talent-All talents are welcomed. Performances must not exceed 2 minutes. Talent performances include dance, vocal, twirling, cheer, speech and debate, presentation readings, athletic demonstrations, etc... Only one contestant is allowed to perform to the same music in the same category within the same age division and is determined by date of application submission.

Physical Fitness- All contestants will wear black shorts, your pageant T-Shirt, tennis shoes, and white socks. You must purchase a pageant T-Shirt. Shirts will be handed out at rehearsal the evening before the pageant. This will allow you time to decorate your t-shirt for the pageant. Suggested decorations include adding ribbon to the sleeves and hair or adding rhinestones to the shirt.

On-Stage Question-This one question will be asked on stage during the evening wear portion of the pageant. You will receive your question the night before during rehearsal.

Casual Wear-Contestants need to wear something that depicts their personality, favorite activity, or favorite time of the year. Contestants are judged on confidence, attitude, and personality.
