CROWDER FIRST DAY ENROLLMENT UP FROM LAST YEAR

NEOSHO, MO – Enrollment on the first day of the Spring semester is up 2.33% in headcount over the same time last year. Credit hours taken is also higher by 2.45%. Although official enrollment numbers will not be reported until the 20th day of the semester, February 11, Crowder officials are pleased with the outlook. Expansion of programs and locations has given students alternatives which may reflect the continued growth. Over the past 10 years enrollment has more than doubled with the fall of 2012 reporting the colleges highest enrollment, 5,590 students.
