

September 6, 2013

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OFFICE OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

CROWDER COLLEGE CONSTITUTION DAY EVENTS

NEOSHO, MO – Crowder College’s Social Science Department will hold its annual Constitution Day on Tuesday, September 17, from 1:00-2:30 p.m. in the Wright Conference Center, located inside the Arnold Farber Building. John Dolence, Attorney at Spencer, Scott & Dwyer, will present, “Constitutional Free Speech on the College Campus.”

John's practice is principally concentrated on workers' compensation, education law, contracts, adoptions, and general and business litigation. He also represents plaintiffs in personal injury and wrongful death claims. A native of Neosho, Missouri, John earned his undergraduate and juris doctorate degrees from the University of Tulsa in 1983 and 1986. John is admitted to practice in state and federal courts in Missouri and Oklahoma.

Campus Life has arranged for a Voter Registration set up in the Student Center from 9-11 a.m. Voter Registration cards will also be available outside of Wright Conference Center for attendees.

###

For more information please Keith Zoromski, Social Sciences Instructor, at 417-455-5766 or e-mail: keithzoromski@crowder.edu
You may also contact my office.