Quick Facts

Event:

The “1st Annual TRIO Dodgeball Tournament” will be held on May 3, 2014, at the Crowder College, Neosho Campus Gymnasium and will begin at 10:00 a.m. There will be free admission, and concessions will be available. All funds will go directly to the TRIO Scholarships.

Select a team name and theme. Prizes for best dressed will be determined by the crowd.

Purpose:

Our goal is to raise funds which will be returned to Crowder College students in the form of academic scholarships for both Crowder and Dual-Credit enrollees.

Who we are :

TRIO programs are federally-funded programs designed to provide educational access and assistance to income-eligible, first-generation (the first in their family to complete a four-year college degree), and/or disabled students.

Crowder College hosts nine TRIO projects which serve income-eligible and first-generation college students. All services are offered at no cost to participants.

TRIO Programs at Crowder include the Educational Opportunity Center (EOC), Student Support Services (SSS), Talent Search (TS), Upward Bound (UB), and Upward Bound Math/ Science (UBMS).
