

601 Laclede Ave., Neosho, MO 64850 417-455-5540

May 28, 2014

For Immediate Release

Office of Public Information

Phone: 417-455-5540

e-mail: cindybrown@crowder.edu

Bull Riding Event at Crowder College's Roughrider Arena Scheduled

Neosho, MO – The LJ Jenkins Ridin' for the ATV Bull Riding event will be held, Saturday, May 31, at 7pm at the Crowder College Roughrider Arena in Neosho.

Advance tickets are $10 and children 10 & under are $8 and may be purchased at the Crowder College Bookstore, First Community Bank and Eric Norris State Farm Agent. Tickets may also be purchased at the gate for $12 adults and $10 for children.

An autograph signing will be held at First Community Bank on Garner Edgewood Drive, Neosho, from 11am to 1pm, Saturday, May 31. Free tickets for children, hot dogs and t-shirts will be on sale during the signing event. KBTN radio will be broadcasting live from the signing.

This is the 3rd of 5 events where participating bull riders who ride at all 5 qualifying events can earn the champion award of a new ATV. LJ Jenkins is currently #14 in the PBR and past World Champion.

For more information contact Karen Fink at 417-455-5720.

###

Roughrider Arena is located at 608 Field Avenue, Neosho, MO, which is east of the Newton County Fairgrounds.