Crowder EOC Provides Free Financial Aid Workshops

NEOSHO, MO – The Crowder College Educational Opportunity Center (EOC) will be offering financial Aid workshops throughout Crowder’s 9-county service district over the next few weeks. The FAFSA (Free Application Federal Student Aid) workshops will take place March 3-27, at various locations throughout the area.

The FAFSA workshops are designed to assist anyone planning to attend college or technical school. High School seniors and parents, adults planning to enter college or technical training or return to college, and those individuals who are nearing completion of the GED/HSE are encouraged to attend.

For more information or to schedule a time please call 417-455-5475 or toll free 866-822-1362.

For more information please contact the Crowder College Educational Opportunity Center at 417-455-5475 or 866-822-1362.

How are you going to pay for college or technical training?

FREE FINANCIAL AID ASSISTANCE

Advisors representing the Educational Opportunity Center will personally assist you in completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to attend the college of your choice!

High school seniors, and parents, or adults planning to enter college or technical training or return to college, and those individuals who are nearing completion of the GED/HSE are encouraged to attend.

Bring your 2014 income tax returns (both parents and students if under the age of 24) if applicable, in order for the FAFSA to be completed and submitted correctly to the U.S. Department of Education.

For information – call the EOC Main Office at 866-822-1362
