

May 14, 2015

For Immediate Release

Office of Public Information

Crowder Theatre Presents Faculty Showcase

Neosho, MO – Crowder College faculty members are directing a faculty showcase in theatre, May 27-29, 7:30pm nightly in the Elsie Plaster Community Center on the Neosho campus. Tickets will be $4 for general admission; $2 for children under age 12. The entire show will run approximately 2 hours.

There will be three show, each being directed by a faculty member as follows:

“Totally Red” (Target Audience: YOUNG/ALL)

By: Dinah Toups

Directed by: Shirley Gollhofer

CAST - Madison Baker- Diamond; Brandon Hall- Carthage (Graduating Theatre Major); Zaq Ezell- Neosho; Alisha Morris-Neosho; Anna Jones- Nevada; Sarah Leggett- Carl Junction

“Picasso” (Target Audience- Adult/Teen)

By: Don Nigro

Directed By: Jason Edgar

CAST - Elly Booth- Carl Junction; Dalton Compton- East Newton; Sarah Leggett – Carl Junction;

“The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County” (Target Audience- YOUNG/ALL)

By: Joseph Donough (Adapted from the short story by Mark Twain)

Directed By: Ben C. Davies

CAST - MaKenzie Schwalm- Eldorado Springs; Brandon Hall- Carthage; Ashlee McDermott- Diamond High School; Alisha Morris- Neosho (High School Theatre Teacher)

###

For more information please contact NaTasha Davies at 417-455-5458 or my office.