Davis Exhibit at Crowder College

Neosho, MO – Crowder College’s Longwell Museum will host an art exhibit now through February 25, for TH Benton “Best of Show” winner, April Davis. An artist reception will be held Saturday, February 13, from 4-6pm. The museum, which is located inside the Elsie Plaster Community Center on the Neosho campus is open Monday-Friday, 9am-4pm. The museum will be closed Monday, February 15.

Davis is the daughter of artist Lowell Davis, Carthage, MO. She has been exposed to art her entire life. Her inspiration comes from walks through the woods, as she loves nature.

Davis teaches at Cherry’s Art Gallery on Saturday afternoon in Carthage. She also sells work at Cherry’s and Local Color Art Gallery in Joplin.

She is a board member of the Joplin Regional Artists Coalition (JRAC) and has won numerous awards for her works. “I love our art rich community,” says Davis.
