

June 1, 2016

Office of Public Information For Immediate Release

Mural Unveiling at Crowder's Lee Library

Neosho, MO – The Lee Library at Crowder College unveiled a student painted mural on Wednesday, June 1, outside the Lee Library, located inside the Arnold Farber Building on the Neosho campus.

The mural titled “Plan, Lean, Care, Create, Serve,” was a student project lead by recently retired art instructor, Allen Bishop. Bishop previously oversaw the creation and painting of murals permanently displayed inside the Elsie Plaster Community Center and 1st floor of Newton Hall. Bishop was on hand at the ceremony discussing the process behind the project.

The mural was designed, painted and built by students in the fall 2015 and spring 2016 semesters.

Artists include: Krissy Andersen (Sarcoxie), Racheal Anderson (Joplin), Joseph Cory (Neosho), Ryan Dennington (Bernie), Kendra Hall (Purdy), Mary Beth Hertzog (Neosho), Francisco Lara (Verona), Nicole Leyva (Seneca), Sadie Witt (Carthage), Kaylee Rodas (Carthage).

Funding for the mural was made possible by the Lee Library Friends of the Library. For more information about the group please contact Eric Deatherage, Library Director, 417.455.5610.

###

Allen Bishop as he explained the project from start to finish.

Please contact my office if you have additional questions.