What happens to the old gods when no one believes in them anymore? Would their powers vanish into thin air? Would they have to find new jobs? Would they fight back? Set in a bar on Mount Olympus over Easter weekend, Three Gods Walk into a Bar, looks at these questions and more, exploring the very basis of faith and philosophy through humor. - The City Paper, Nashville

Tickets are available at the door: $8 – Adults; $5-Senior Citizens; $4-Crowder Students/Employees; Free-Children ages 12 and under. The production is a comedy rated PG-13 due to language and content.
