CROWDER INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS HOST FESTIVAL

NEOSHO, MO – The Crowder College International Club will be hosting an International Festival, Thursday, May 4, 11am., in the Wright Conference Center on the Neosho campus.

This year’s theme, “This is Us” will feature small presentations of countries while students and staff offer food samplings of various foods from around the world. The festivities will begin at 11am and continue until the cuisine samples are gone. “The festival is a wonderful opportunity for our students to share of themselves,” stated Sarah Horine, International Programs Coordinator.

There are international students from 30 different countries attending Crowder this spring. Festival activities will include cultural presentations and food from countries such as Venezuela, Mali, Egypt, China and more.

Tickets may be purchased in advance for $4 or at the door for $5 and may be purchased by calling the International Office at 417.455.5550. This event is open to the public as well as Crowder students and staff.
