POSITION SUMMARY

The Allied Health Programs Instructor is responsible for teaching courses in the Allied Health Programs, including but not limited to Certified Medical Assistant (CMA); developing partnerships with internship/clinical sites; and advising students in the CMA and other Allied Health Programs.

MAJOR FUNCTIONS

1. Teach courses in the CMA program as needed, two days per week at the Webb City campus and two per week at the McDonald County campus.
2. Recruit students for Allied Health programs.
3. Participate in the development of Allied Health curriculum, course sequencing, and clinical schedules.
4. Develop and maintain partnerships with internship/clinical sites.
5. Ensure the availability of academic advisement and guidance of students.
6. Participate in Health Division faculty meetings, general faculty meetings, student activities, community activities, and the Health Education Advisory Council.
7. Implement the philosophy and objectives of the institution and Allied Health program.
8. Provide input on policies regarding recruitment, admission, retention, and promotion of students.
9. Serve on institutional committees as needed.
10. Participate in the development of departmental and institutional policies.
11. Develop course syllabi based on the institutional syllabi. Copies should be submitted to division chairs and the Academic Affairs Office each semester.
12. Maintain regular posted office hours.
13. Support college activities.
14. Other duties as assigned.

Learning is the key to human growth and development. The primary function of faculty members at Crowder College is to help students maximize their learning. In order to help our students be better learners, faculty members are expected to:

1. Devote full time and energy to maximize student learning outcomes.
2. Continue learning through professional development activities.
3. Be a role model for learning behavior and servant leadership.
4. Include students in all facets of instruction, guidance and academic association.
5. Maintain confidential relationships with respect to student information.
6. Respect student thoughts.
7. Select appropriate texts and other course materials in conjunction with the division chair.
8. Adhere to student abilities and competencies listed in the institutional syllabi of courses taught.
9. Return evaluated student exams and papers in a timely fashion.
10. Maintain grades and class status information.
11. Submit required reports by deadlines.
12. Attend graduation ceremonies.
