MIDWEST CLAY ARTIST EXHIBIT AT CROWDER COLLEGE

NEOSHO, MO – “Of Earth and Fire”, a gathering of Midwest Clay Artists will be on exhibit January 23 – February 7, in the Longwell Museum located inside the Elsie Plaster Community Center on the Neosho campus. An opening reception will be held on Sunday, January 27 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. Regular museum hours are 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday-Friday. The exhibit is free and open to the public.

Man’s use of fire and clay to create ceramic art is, indeed prehistoric. The fascination of how earth and water react in fire has persisted through all ages and civilizations. Today’s ceramic artists still explore the possibilities of clay, and the Midwest Clay Artists are no exception. We have brought together our newest variety of ceramic art...created by many methods, glazed in many ways, and fired by many means.
