Soccer Scholarship for Area High School MVP's

Neosho, MO - Crowder College soccer coach Brad Smith announced today the initiation of a new soccer scholarship through the Crowder Foundation.

The four states MVP soccer scholarship is designed to attract high school players in the four states region that received the MVP award from their high school soccer team and is designed to assist with the cost of tuition and fees, room and board, and books. Qualified players should e-mail: bradsmith@crowder.edu

"I really want to thank the Rice's for their generous donation and their help in trying to attract the best local talent to Crowder," said Coach Smith. "We live and breathe with our local talent and need to be able to attract these kids to run a successful program."

Crowder College's soccer program began in 2008. Coach Smith has 40 seasons as a college coach. His teams are know for their quality of play, competitiveness and sportsmanship. The team participates in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division I for Region 16.
