Crowder College Names Roughrider

Neosho, MO – The Crowder College Board of Trustees, Faculty, Staff and Students were on hand to find out the results of a 2-week vote to determine the name of the college’s roughrider. Almost 1900 votes were tallied and the name selected was ROWDY.

Crowder College established the Roughrider as its mascot in 1963, but the college recently designed a mascot costume along with its new branding. Rowdy will be found at various events on campus and in the community.
