

December 10, 2014

For Immediate Release
Office of Public Information

Crowder Commemorates Civil War with Course

Neosho, MO - In recognition of the ongoing nationwide Civil War Sesquicentennial commemoration, the Crowder College Social Science Division is excited to announce the Spring 2015 availability of a course covering the American Civil War.

This course, HIST 112, will be a comprehensive and in-depth study of the American Civil War. Emphasis will be placed on the coming of the Civil War, the secession crisis, both the military and non-military events of the war years, and the resulting Reconstruction Era.

The course will be instructed by Mrs. Denna Clymer and meet on Mondays and Wednesdays on campus in Neosho from 1:00 to 1:50 PM.

The Social Science Division is pleased to offer this opportunity and encourages both students and members of the community to consider enrolling in this course.

Please contact course instructor Mrs. Denna Clymer (DennaClymer@Crowder.edu) or Social Science Division Chair Mr. Keith Zoromski (KeithZoromski@Crowder.edu) with any questions.

###

For more information please contact my office or Mr. Zoromski, Social Science Division Chair, shown above.