

August 20, 2015

For Immediate Release
Office of Public Information

Crowder and Branco Ink Apprenticeship Agreement

Neosho, MO – Officials from Crowder College and Branco Enterprises, Inc. will sign a carpentry apprenticeship agreement Thursday, August 27, at 1:30pm in the Technical Education Center building on the Neosho campus.

Dr. Jennifer Methvin, Crowder College President, and John Branham, Branco President, will be on hand to sign. Students in the apprenticeship program will also be in attendance. Currently, the program has fourteen students enrolled in the first class.

Upon signing, tours of the classroom will be available.

###

For more information please contact my office.