

May 2, 2016

For Immediate Release

Office of Public Information

Phone: 417-455-5540

e-mail: cindybrown@crowder.edu

Bull Riding Event at Crowder College's Roughrider Arena Scheduled

Neosho, MO – LJ Jenkins and Crowder College Aggies present LJ Jenkins Bull Riding Tour, Saturday, May 7, at 7pm at the Crowder College Roughrider Arena in Neosho.

Tickets available at the gate: Adult - $10; Children ages 6-12 - $8; Free for ages 5 and under.

This year there will be a kid's fun zone from 4-6:00pm, prior to the bull riding event. These activities are free with a paid admission to the Bull Riding. Activities include: coloring area, farm animal petting area, dummy roping and other events.

There will also be a chuckwagon bean feed for $5 starting at 5:00 pm. The meal will include beans, cornbread and a drink. Also available will be dutch oven cobblers and cowboy coffee.

A silent auction will be held with the funds going to the family of Justin Robinson. He is the son of bull producer, Mickey Robinson, who was severely injured in an auto accident. LJ Jenkins has secured several items for the silent auction.

Autograph session with the cowboys and Dustin "The Jester" Jenkins will be available during the kid's fun zone and after the event. LJ Jenkins is a past PBR World Champion.

For more information contact Karen Fink, Agriculture Division, at 417-455-5720.

###

Roughrider Arena is located at 608 Field Avenue, Neosho, MO, which is east of the Newton County Fairgrounds.