

May 22, 2017

Office of Public Information
For Immediate Release

Roughriders Baseball Headed to NJCAA World Series

Neosho, MO – The Crowder College Roughrider Baseball team defeated Seminole State to win the South Central District and advance to the National Junior College Division I World Series in Grand Junction, CO.

The Roughriders are now 52-12 on the season and ranked #3 in NJCAA Division I baseball.

The JUCO World Series begins Saturday, May 27, with the Roughriders taking on Chipola (Gulf District) at 4pm Central time.

The championship games, June 2 and 3 (if needed), will be broadcast live on mlb.com. Other games beginning May 28 will be broadcast on: <http://www.njcaatv.com/landing/index>

###

The team leaves Tuesday, May 23, for Grand Junction at noon.

Crowder will post to their iScore site:

<http://data.iscorecentral.com/iscorecast/baseball/scorecast.html?c=7DD42FB6C7>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Roughrider-baseball-fans-127837277243930/>

