

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN A BUSINESS CAREER?

Associate of Arts Business Administration

Crowder's Associate of Arts in Business Administration will provide a quality education for students interested in transferring to a four-year institution for a bachelor's degree in business administration, management, marketing, human resource management, international business, accounting, and finance. If you are interested in pursuing a career in business and plan to pursue a four-year business degree, see us for your first two years in Business Administration!

WHY CROWDER?

- Small class sizes and low student-to-teacher ratio
- Personalized care from credentialed instructors
- Courses available online, in-person, day & evening
- Degree may be obtained entirely online
- Reduce the cost of college with a transfer degree
- Business courses easily transfer

CROWDER COLLEGE

BUSINESS DIVISION
601 LACLEDE AVE, NEOSHO, MO 64850

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

WHY MAJOR IN BUSINESS?

Business affects nearly every aspect of our life and is an invaluable asset in the workforce. Business, management, and technology careers continue to be placed on the Missouri's Hot Jobs list. The business administration major is perhaps the most flexible major offered. A recent survey of employers found Business and Management, Accounting and Finance, and Economic majors to be among the Top 5 most valued college majors.

POTENTIAL CAREERS

- Accounting
- Management
- Marketing
- Economics
- Finance
- Human Resource Management
- International Business
- Logistics

FOR MORE INFORMATION

417.455.5503 | KaliBard@Crowder.edu

CROWDER.EDU

CROWDER COLLEGE
— EST. 1963 —