

DIESEL TECHNOLOGY

ARE YOU WANTING AN INTERESTING AND CHALLENGING CAREER?

Certificates - Diesel Technology: Electrical/Electronics I, Diesel Technology: Electrical/Electronics II, Diesel Technology: Engines I, & Diesel Technology: Engines II Associate of Applied Science - Diesel Technology

Crowder College offers Diesel Technology which offers hands-on learning throughout the program. This program equips students with an entry level knowledge of diesel systems, including electrical, drive train, engines, brakes, steering, HVAC and hydraulics.

WHY CROWDER?

- Tools are provided
- Students are eligible for a tool discount for future employment
- Paid internship opportunities
- Learn to work with a wide variety of tools and equipment – everything from lawn mowers to heavy equipment!
- Flexible course schedule – day and evening options
- ASE (Automotive Service Excellence) Certified
- A+ Program Eligible

CROWDER COLLEGE

TECHNICAL EDUCATION CENTER
601 LACLEDE AVE, NEOSHO, MO 64850

DIESEL TECHNOLOGY

WHAT WOULD MY JOB BE LIKE?

- Inspecting repairs to transportation vehicles or equipment to ensure that repair work was performed properly
- Conferring with customers to obtain descriptions of vehicle problems and to discuss work to be performed and future repair requirements
- Attaching test instruments to equipment, and reading dials and gauges to diagnose malfunctions
- Rewiring ignition systems, lights, and instrument panels

WHERE WOULD I WORK?

- Repair shops
- Roadside or work-sites
- Equipment dealerships
- Engine manufacturers

POTENTIAL CAREERS

- Diesel Mechanic
- Diesel Engine Technician
- Driver
- Maintenance and Service Specialist
- Logistics Manager

FOR MORE INFORMATION

417.455.5707 | ClarenceBrewer@Crowder.edu

CROWDER.EDU

CROWDER COLLEGE
— EST. 1963 —